

I agree with RM-10811. Eliminating the CW requirement and further "dumbing down" of amateur radio license requirements is not a good idea. The highest class of amateur radio licensee should certainly be able to operate Morse Code at 12 words per minute.